Terry and Vivian Flanagan founded the Ryan Patrick Wines in 1999, naming it after their two sons, Ryan and Patrick. They are now well known for planting some of the first wine grapes in what is now Washington State's American Viticultural Area (AVA), Ancient Lakes of Columbia Valley. Ryan Patrick showcases the Ancient Lakes AVA with its dry, crisp, aromatic white wines, crafted without added sugar or concentrates. With distinct fruit flavors and natural acidity, these wines are a great introduction for anyone seeking a better-for-you wine option from the Ancient Lakes of Columbia Valley.

RYAN PATRICK

Ryan Patrick wines are committed to artisanal winemaking practices that place the grapes at the forefront. The name comes from the two sons of the grape-growing family founders and the bedrock of the Ancient Lakes of Columbia Valley AVA. Our process uses intuitive wine-making that genuinely allows the fruit to shine.
